A MESSAGE FROM THE CREATOR

Let me first thank you for downloading my first-ever colouring book sample of my newest creation; Da Fossilz. The idea of Da Fossilz came about this year during some spare time and a Covid-19 outbreak I wanted to create something for kids and parents looking for activities to do. Colouring books have become a great source for inspiring creativity and as well reducing stress and anxiety among people.

When I saw people posting their colouring activities on social media, I saw mostly dragons and unicorns. There's nothing wrong with that, but I wanted to switch it up. So I went about creating my own characters which were inspired by some of the things I was doing during my Covid isolation.

I was listening to a lot of audiobooks. One, in particular, was "Chuck D Presents This Day in Rap and Hip-Hop History". It was great to feel some nostalgia and learn the history of some of my favourite songs of the past. This led to me listening and supporting a flux of DJs performing live jam sessions on Twitch. Listening to the music fueled this fusion for blending hip hop culture and dinosaurs.

Who doesn't like dinosaurs? So I just began doodling these characters late at night and this is the outcome of that work. Each member of the Da Fossilz embodied an element of hip-hop. The young phenomenal M.C., the hard-voiced veteran storyteller, the female pioneers, the evolution of dance, the beat-makers and producers, to the soul and R&B hooks, and graffiti art.

I know you'll enjoy this sample as I iron out the next steps for Da Fossilz. As I continue to refine their looks, develop additional characters and future stories, I hope I can count on your support for my plans. I encourage you to print out and start colouring on these pages, as well as share and post on your favourite social channels. Be sure to tag me @jdas2k on Twitter and Instagram and use the hashtag #DaFossilz as well. I also encourage you to share the link to my Gumroad with your friends so they can download a copy as well. The preview edition is available for free, but you can also pay what you want. The money will help support me and my creative output planned for Da Fossilz.

I look forward to seeing your colourful pages and thank you again for your support.

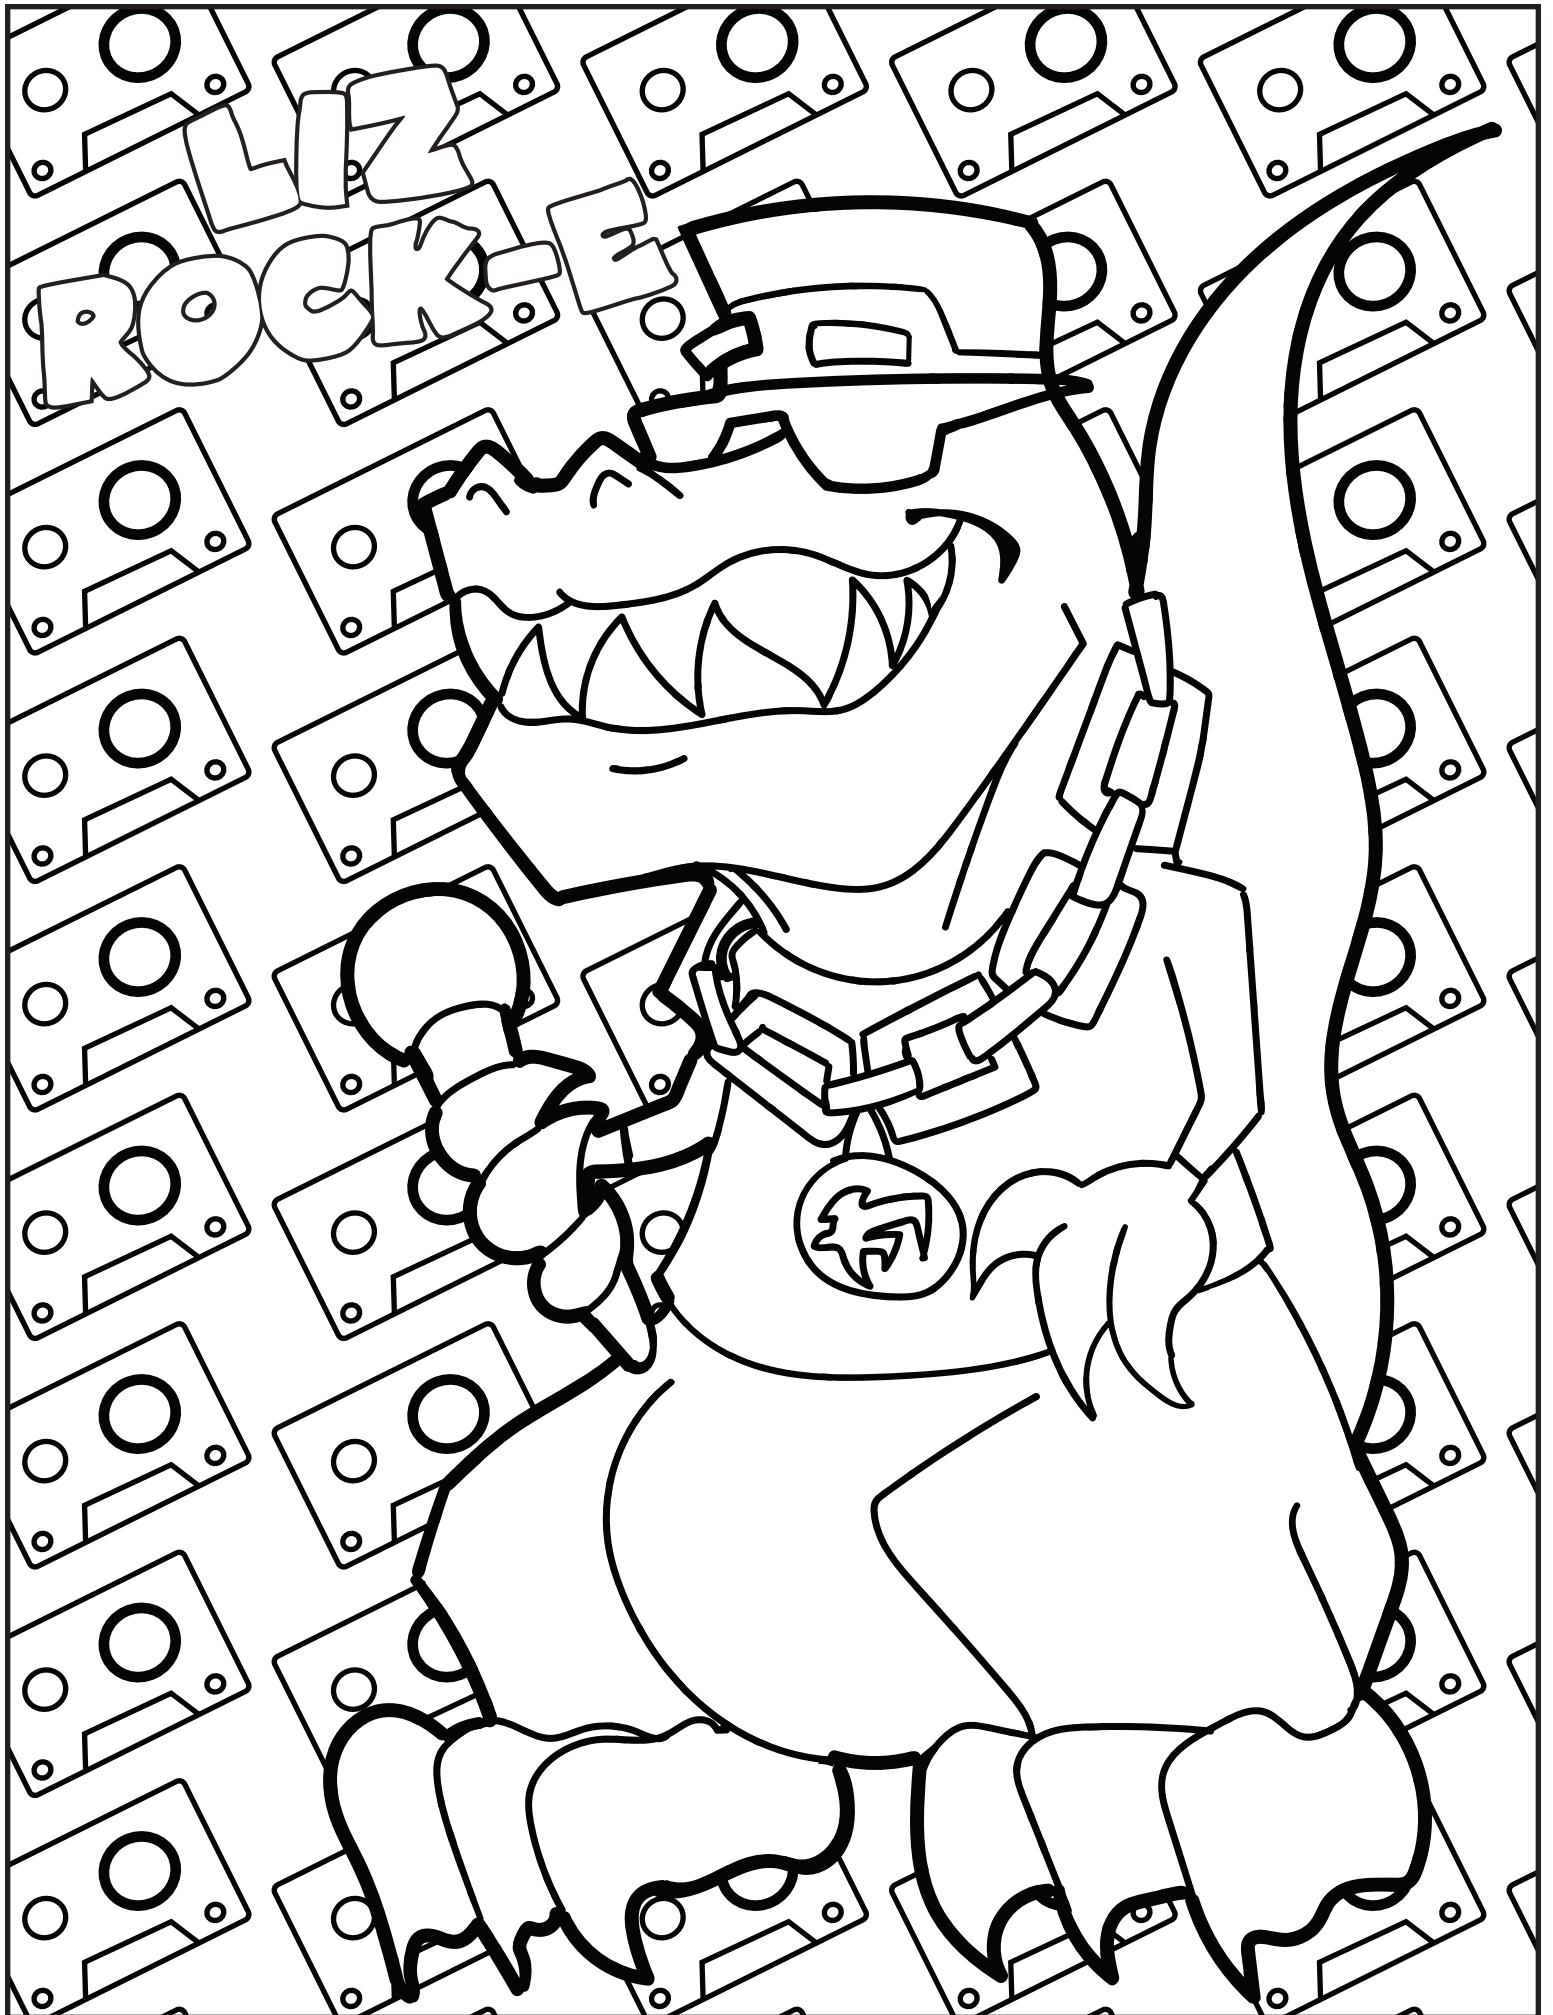

Much Love,

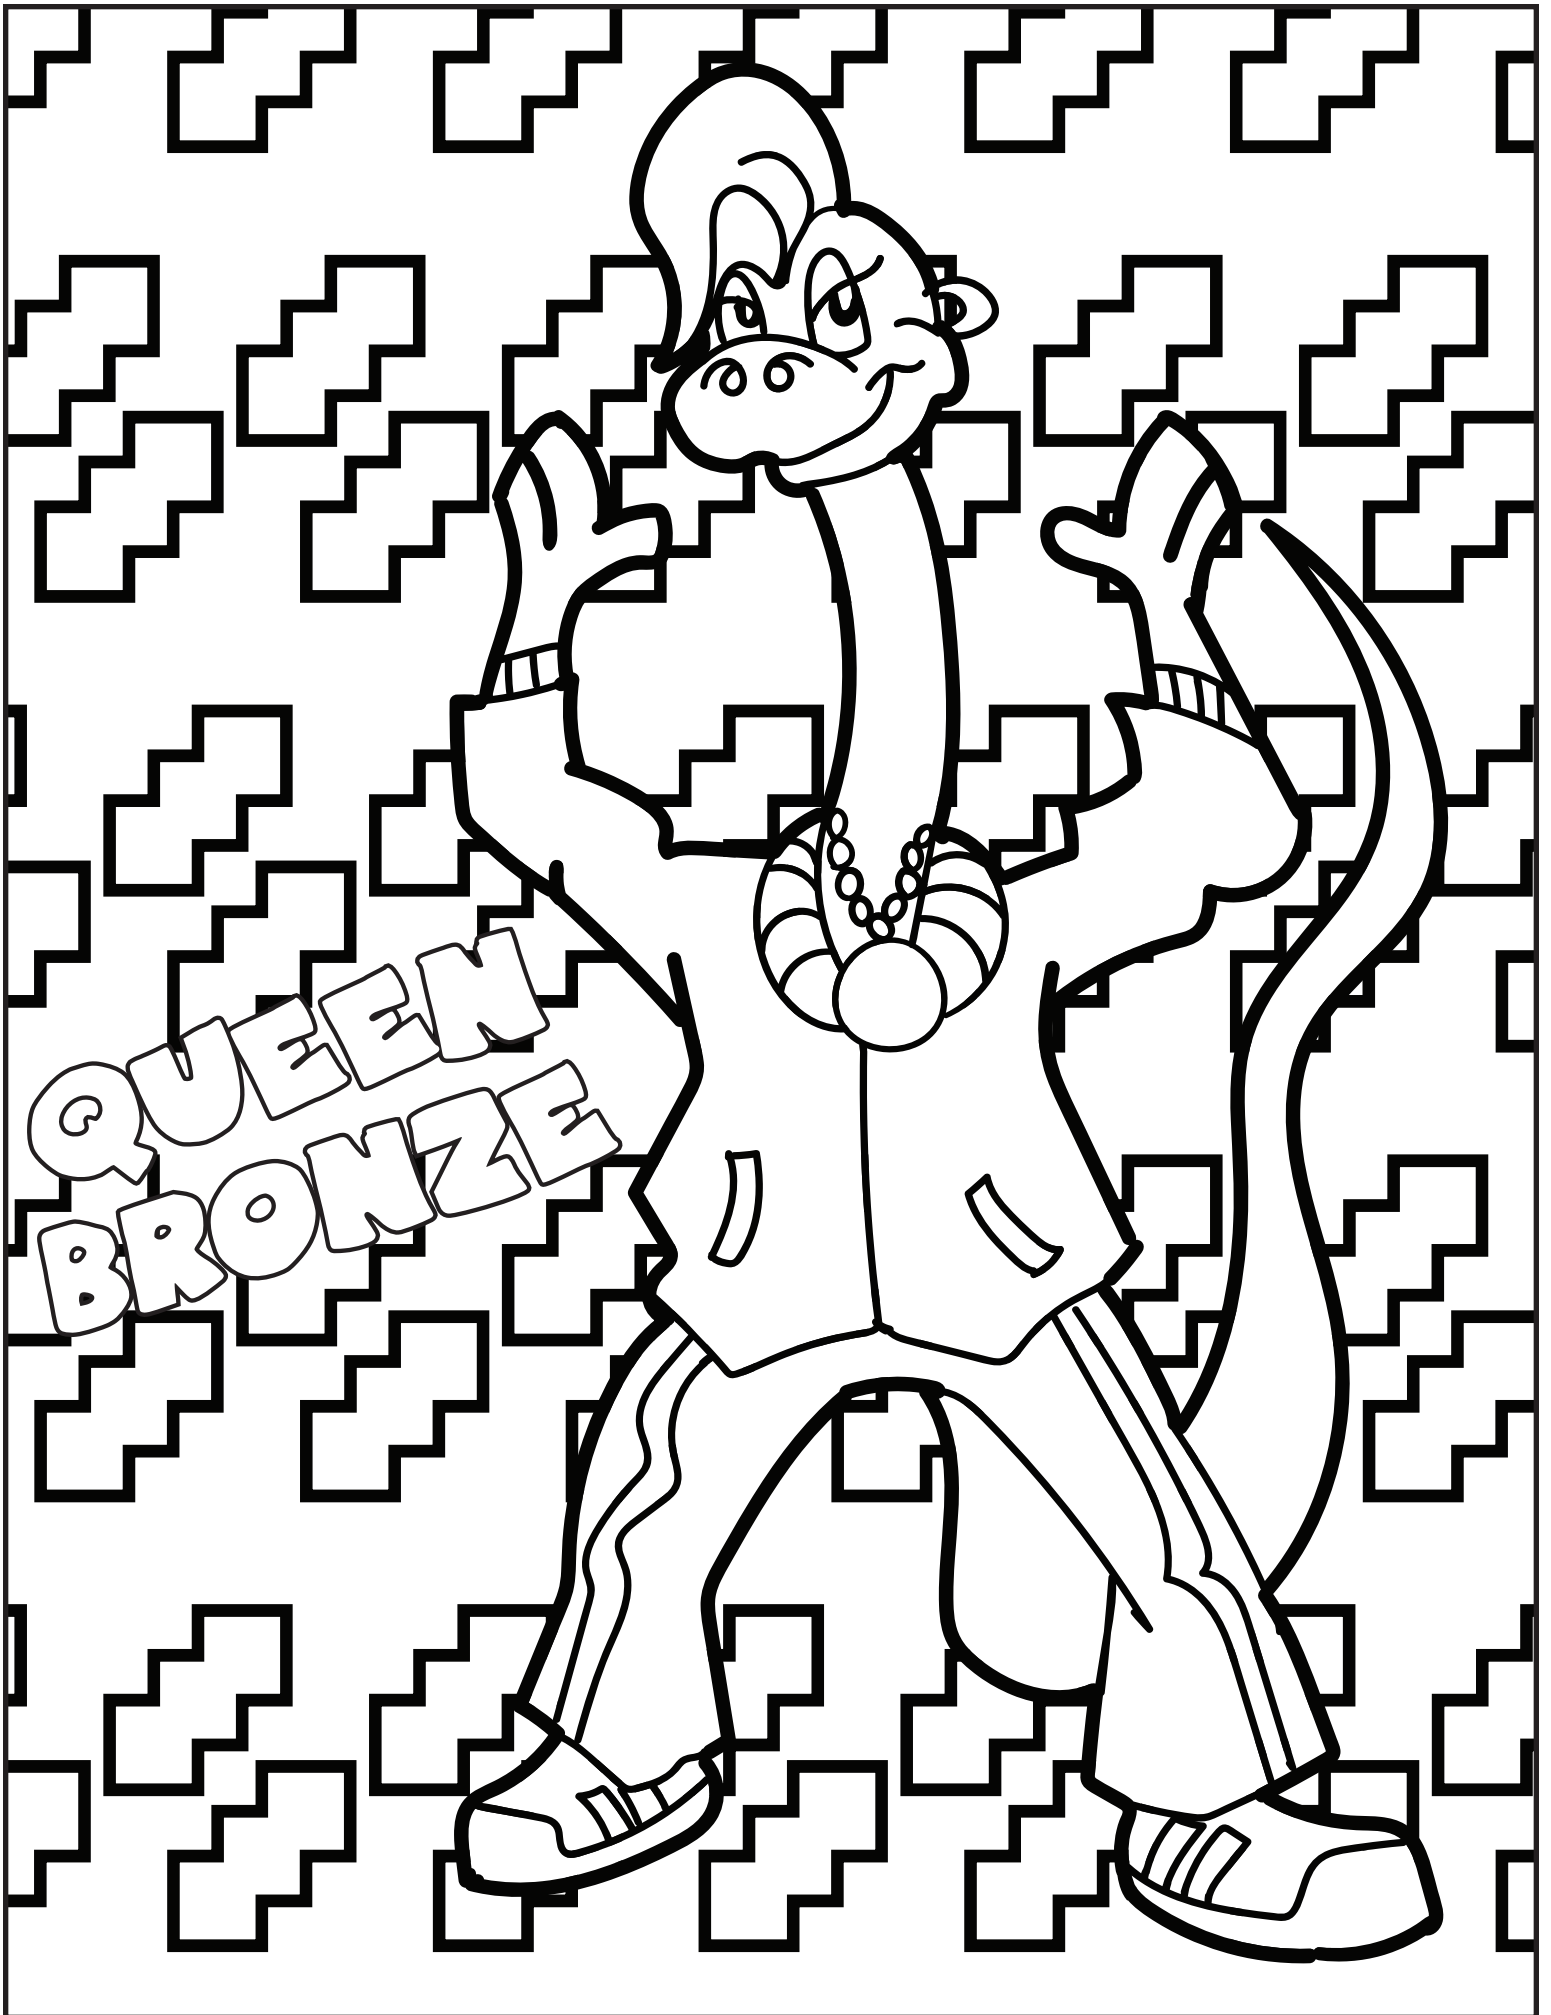

Jason A. Das
